

IEA Accreditation:

Easy instructions for accreditation teacher applicants

To complete an IEA Teacher accreditation application:

1.) Download and fill out an accreditation application:

- Fill out personal and contact information at top of form.
- Provide information about educational background.
- Include information about direct Enneagram training and any certifications attained: Note: you must have completed at least 100 hours of direct Enneagram training from an accredited or recognized school.
- List any licenses or certifications you have received from governmental organizations or agencies.
- List any Enneagram publications you have authored.
- List any IEA-sponsored conferences you have attended or presented at.
- List any other relevant Enneagram-related personal growth work you have completed. Please remember to include dates.
- Provide 3 references – one personal and 2 Enneagram-related.
- Remember to sign your application indicating that you have read the IEA's ethical guidelines for Enneagram practitioners and you agree to adhere to these guidelines.
- Send your application to Sandy Hatmaker at the IEA office:

Email: administration@internationalenneagram.org

Sandy Hatmaker
International Enneagram Association
4010 Executive Park Drive, Suite 100
Cincinnati, OH 45241, USA

- Don't forget to send your accreditation application fee of $50 USD.